

Conference schedule

“Deliberation: values, processes, institutions” (4th-5th of June, 2012), Warsaw

4th of June, 2012

9.00am-9.10am	Welcome by Anna Przybylska (Centre for Deliberation, IS UW)
9.10am-9.40am	Opening speech Stephen Coleman (University of Leeds) Constructing the deliberative citizen
9.40am-11.00am	Panel: The evaluation criteria and the standards of public debate Chair: Kees Brants (University of Amsterdam) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mareike Gebhardt (University of Regensburg) On the Impossibility of the Public Sphere. Political deliberation between dissent and consensus • Elżbieta Wesołowska (Warmia and Mazury University) Qualitative analysis of deliberation process in small groups - presentation of methodology • Marcin Zgiep (University of Warsaw) Assessing deliberative potential. Evaluative dimensions of discursive interaction in contemporary democracy
11.00am-11.20am	Coffee break
11.20am-12.50pm	Roundtable discussion: The limits of deliberation Host: Anna Przybylska (University of Warsaw) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kees Brants (University of Amsterdam) • Marek Czyżewski (University of Lodz) • Paweł Śpiewak (University of Warsaw) • Jürg Steiner (University of Bern)
12.50pm-1.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm-3.00pm	Panel: Experiment, social intervention and their results Chair: Yves Sintomer (University Paris VIII) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mauro Serapioni (Centre for Social Studies, Coimbra) Potentiality and limitations of deliberative approaches in the health sector. The Citizens' Juries • Paweł Kuczyński (Polish Sociological Association) How potential conflicts perspective support revitalization of urban public space. The good practice of OMDO in Warsaw • Jeremy Mann, Alice Siu (Stanford University) Deliberative Polling® in Poland: Poznan Deliberates on Sports Stadium Use
3.00pm-3.10pm	Coffee break
3.10pm-4.40pm	Panel on Deliberative Poll® - cross country and culture perspective Chair: James Fishkin (Stanford University) Discussant: Robert Luskin (University of Texas at Austin) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pierangelo Isernia (University of Siena) • Gyorgy Lengyel (Corvinus University of Budapest) • Yana Papazova (Centre for Liberal Strategies in Sofia) • Tatsuro Sakano (Tokyo Institute of Technology)
4.40pm-4.50pm	Coffee break
4.50pm-6.10pm	Panel: Dialogue on energy choices & ecology – when global meets local Chair: Piotr Gliński (Polish Academy of Sciences) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Birgit Jaeger (Roskilde University) Citizen Participation in deliberative global governance • Aviezer Tucker (University of Texas at Austin) The crisis in democratic technology assessment and deliberative democracy: an application to Poland's hydraulic fracturing debate • Piotr Stankiewicz (Nicolaus Copernicus University) How to deal with the public? Strategies and attitudes of local decision makers in controversial investments in energy sector

5th of June, 2012

9.00am-9.30am	Opening speech Claus Offe (Hertie School of Governance) Formation vs. aggregation of political preferences
9.30am-11.00am	Roundtable discussion: Innovations in democracy: what directions? Host: Claus Offe (Hertie School of Governance) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stephen Coleman (University of Leeds) • James Fishkin (Stanford University) • Robert Luskin (University of Texas at Austin) • Radosław Markowski (Polish Academy of Sciences) • Yves Sintomer (University of Paris VIII)
11.00am-11.20am	Coffee break
11.20am-12.40pm	Panel: Online deliberation: IT opportunities and human barriers Chair: Jerzy Tyszkiewicz (University of Warsaw) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Weiyu Zhang (National University of Singapore) Online deliberation: a proceduralist perspective • Michelle Reusch, Katarzyna Kowala-Stamm, Matthias Trenal (ZebraLog GmbH & Co KG) The patterns of non-participation. An analysis of the reasons for non-participation in online consultation processes • Marco Steenbergen (University of Zurich) André Bächtiger (University of Luzern) Information, deliberation, and direct democracy; evidence from the Swiss expulsion initiative
12.40pm-1.20pm	Lunch
1.20pm-2.50pm	Panel: On institutional support for deliberation Chair: Kazimierz Frieske (University of Warsaw) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tamás Meszerics (Central European University, Budapest) Is deliberative democracy normatively superior to representative democracy? Public Justifications and collective decisions • Fan Yang (Ecole Normale Supérieure de Cachan) The influences of public deliberations over the momentous juridical cases in China: structural interactions among the judicial system, public opinions and the power system in new media age • John Gastil (Pennsylvania State University) The Oregon Citizens' Initiative Review: State legislative support for citizen legislators in initiative elections
2.50pm-3.00pm	Coffee break
3.00pm-4.30pm	Roundtable discussion: Deliberation as we would like to envisage: academia-public administration-ngo-s Host: Anna Giza-Poleszczuk (University of Warsaw) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ireneusz Krzemiński (University of Warsaw) • Karol Mojkowski (Association of Leaders of Local Civic Groups) • Henri Monceau (Government of Wallonia) • Agata Wierny (City Hall in Czestochowa)
4.30pm-4.40pm	Closing speech